

HOLD O'MARRON TO GRAND JURY IN ARSON CASE

Groceryman Said to Have Admitted Setting Fire to Store—Goes to County Jail.

T. J. O'Marron, Rock Island grocer, was held to the grand jury under $3,500 bond on a charge of arson by Magistrate D. J. Cleland in police court Saturday afternoon.
The bond was not furnished, and O'Marron was remanded to the county jail.

There was no evidence taken at the preliminary hearing, as Attorney Joseph P. Kelly, representing the defendant, waived examination. Assistant State's Attorney Edward L. Engle recommended that the case go to the grand jury.

The charge against the grocer grew out of investigations made into the origin of a fire at the Farney grocery, 1928 Third avenue, early Thursday morning of last week.
The firemen received a call to the store at 7:10 o'clock that morning and on their arrival found burlap in the rear of the store ablaze. The fire was extinguished with chemicals. Damage was only slight and was confined to smoke damage to stock. No one was about the store at the time the firemen arrived.
The defendant is said to have carried $6,000 insurance on the stock and to have recently taken steps to obtain an additional $2,000 insurance. O'Marron's home is at 1215 Twenty-first street. He was arrested Friday night of last week by Patrolman James Green on Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street.

it is to be understood that the discount now offered covers any merchandise on which prices have been reduced as well as special odd lots to be found on bar-
